St.

STONEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Stoneville Comrades, grandest of girls and boys; Sharing each other's sorrows, Sharing each other's joys; Faithfully working together, loyal whatever be tide, When danger threatens, a pal from old Stoneville is there by your side.

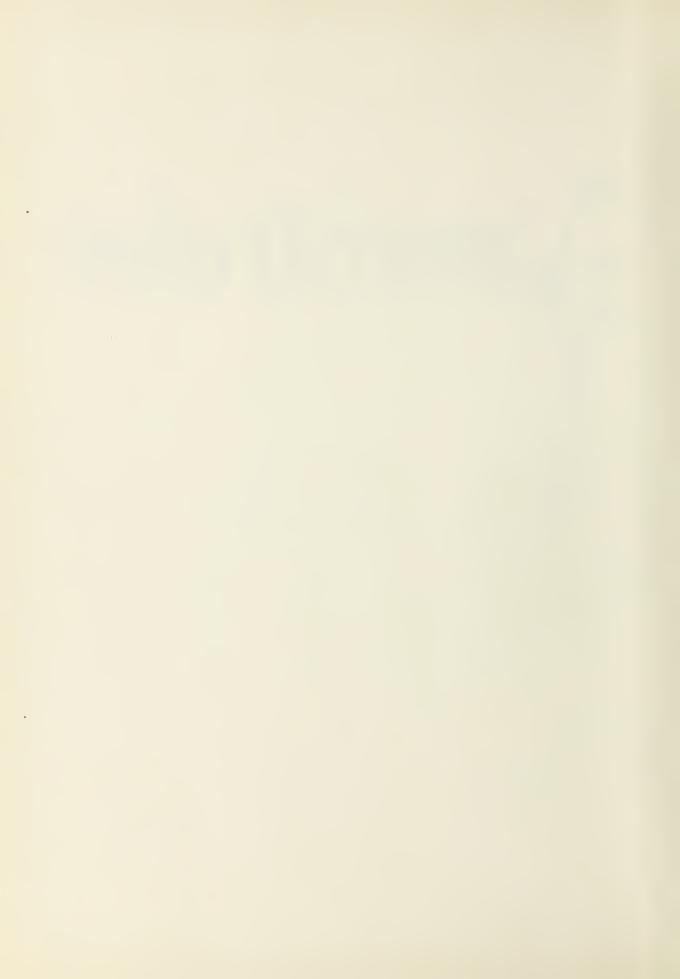

Mrs. Evelyn W. Belton French - History Leacher

To Mrs. Evelyn W. Belton with deep affection and heart-felt admiration because of her outstanding work in our school and her devoted interest in our activities, we the Seniors and the Pioneer Staff, dedicate this, our 1951 yearbook. In the gast years she has given generously of her time and effort to make Stone-ville High School a better school.

A SENIOR'S SOLILOQUY

Come, let me take you by the hand while we stroll over the Stone-ville High School campus. Wait! what is going on here? The Seniors are inaugurating their officers. President Joe Goode comes to the stand followed by her staff, Vice-President Jack Roberts, Secretary Jenny Fain, Treasurer Margaret Gann; Assistant Treasurer Doris Young.

Now as we go through the month of December, we attend the opening basketball game. Our school is so proud of the new scoreboard just presented and installed by the Senior class as their parting gift to the school.

The Seniors are having fun galore at their Christmas party in the recreation basement of the new primary building. We see Philip and Joan, Sanford and Billy, and other couples dancing to the music of Sammy Kaye, Vaughn Monroe, and other dance bands--on record, of course. Now they are moving into the dining room for food; though they return early, we know they have enjoyed a scrumptious feast. The Seniors are very talented; Bird, Joe, John, Jackie, Sanford, and Jack won a prize in a singing contest.

We must be hurrying on to catch our bus for Elon College. Senior Day is an annual event to which the Seniors look forward each year.

We have tarried too long for we must hurry to the Junior-Senior Banquet, the high-light of the year, held at the Belvedere Hotel, Reidsville. As we go into the dining hall, we notice the beautifully decorated room; but it does not surpass the beauty of the girls and boys in their evening attire. The St. Patrick's theme carries us right over to 'ole Ireland.'

The Seniors are really "Cracked Nutts," with such characters as: Drusilla Nutt (Joan Cardwell), Mrs. Garfinkle (Polly Robertson), Professor Beamish (Ben Lancaster), Billy Beamish (Bobby Joyce), Pete Beamish (Jack Roberts), Ginger Nutt (Neta Cox), Peggy Nutt (Mary Ann Wolfe), Delicious Appleby (Louise Shropshire), Confusion Jones (Phil Strong), Adelbert De Weese (Benny Cardwell), Mrs. Dewayne De Weese (Sue Alley). This smash-hit can be added to Mrs. Belton's score of successful productions.

Let's look in on the Seniors's Class Day Exercises. They review their past twelve years in 'dear ole Stoneville High' with a mixture of emotions--some are gay; some are melancholy. The Juniors present the traditional daisy chain which brings tears to the eyes of most of the Seniors as they realize that their school days are almost over.

Sunday evening, May 27, we find the Seniors, their families, and faculty assembled in the auditorium, the scene of the beautiful and inspirational candlelight service. The Reverend T. R. Wolfe delivers the Baccalaureate Sermon.

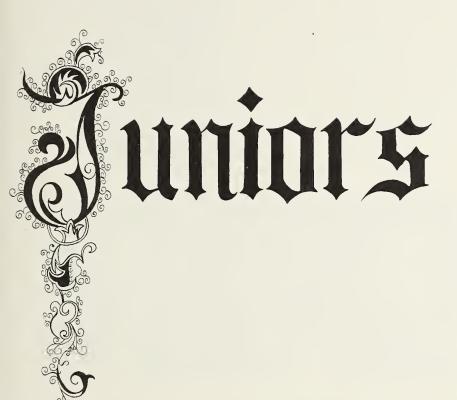

Now, dear friends, we come to the final lap of our journey--the memorable May 29, Graduation Night. Mary Ann Wolfe, valedictorian, and Ben Lancaster, salutatorian, inspires the audience with their orations. Girls in white caps and gowns and boys in blue caps and gowns marching across the stage to receive their diplomas from Mr. Allan Lewis, County Superintendent, are an impressive spectacle.

Bright-eyed graduates of Stoneville High School march out to face the future with high hopes. Some of them are planning business careers while others have already started on their careers as house wives. These are Marie, Violet, Nancy, Mildred, Lou, Jenny, and Bill. May the best of luck be with you, Seniors, in whatever road you choose to take!
